

Test Your Tax Knowledge: Quiz

Topic 3: Going to College Out of State

1. If you are going to college at the University of Kentucky and will be living in a dorm on campus, with the intent on returning home during class break, do you still need to file an Ohio tax return?
2. You have been accepted for an internship in Kentucky, and have decided to move into an apartment off of campus instead of the dorm you were living in. You believe this will be your permanent living situation, as you will be staying in Kentucky to work during class breaks. You change your driver's license and vehicle registration to Kentucky, and have even registered to vote there. All of your mail now comes to your apartment. You still visit home in Ohio on an occasional weekend and the holidays. Do you need to file an Ohio tax return?
3. If your living situation is like the scenario in question 1, do you need to file a school district tax return?
